National Mediation Conferences Ltd

The NMC Board respects the essential living custodial relationship between all First Nations peoples and the land, the water and the oceans, and we respect their cultural and spiritual practices. We recognise all Elders, past, present and emerging, and are committed to reconciliation among all people.

SAVE THE DATE

As an early prelude to the National Mediation Conference in Alice Springs, 1 – 4 September 2021, the NMC is pleased to announce the first of two mini-Conferences for 2020.

NEW TIMES, NEW SPACES: DR RESPONDS TO CHANGE

10am – 3:30pm, Friday 24 July 2020

Hosted on-line by Newcastle University

This is an opportunity to:
- access expert insights and analysis of topical DR issues; and
- engage in discussion of ideas and reflection on practice.
- secure professional CPD points in a congenial space and time

We will soon be announcing registration details, session topics, speakers and chairs and providing access to the conference website.

In the meantime, if you have any queries, please contact:
